ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

28 April 2020

INVESTOR TECHNOLOGY DAY

Appen Ltd (ASX: APX) (Appen) is pleased to invite investors to its annual Investor Technology Day on Tuesday the 19th of May, 2020.

The development and maintenance of artificial intelligence relies on large volumes of high-quality training data. Appen has a leading position in this high growth market due to its global crowd, advanced technology and ongoing investments in engineering and machine learning.

Appen's annual Investor Technology Day showcases the essential role of technology in the collection and preparation of high-quality training data sets and Appen's market-leading platforms and tools.

Due to the restrictions imposed by the Australian and State Governments as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, the meeting will be held as a webcast. The event commences at 11AM Australia Eastern Standard Time and concludes at 2PM. Attendees will be able to interact and ask questions through the online platform.

As there is a limitation to the number of attendees able to join this virtual event, we kindly ask investors to pre-register their interest in the event via this link before Monday 4th of May 2020. A confirmation email with further details about how to join the webcast will be sent closer to the time.

Authorised for release by the Chairman of the Board.
